Every odd numbered year from 3:00 p.m. Christmas Day until 5:00 p.m. the day before school resumes. This Christmas schedule shall also apply to pre-school children over the age of two (2). If a regular weekend visitation of the non-custodial parent falls during the Christmas Vacation period when the child is with the custodial parent, the weekend visitation of the non-custodial parent will not take place. For ages one (1) and two (2), the non-custodial parent shall have visitation on Christmas Day from 2:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Child's Birthday: Every year from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Parent's Birthday: The child shall have visitation with the parent celebrating the birthday from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. In the event the birthday of the custodial parent falls during the regular visitation of the non-custodial parent, the custodial parent shall have visitation with the child from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.

Summer Visitation: If the child is less than three (3) years old, no additional visitation during the summer is ordered. For ages three (3) through five (5), two (2) weeks are provided beginning at 5:00 p.m. the first Friday after school adjourns (whether or not the child attends school) and ending 5:00 p.m. the Friday after next. For ages six (6) and over, visitation will be for a period of six (6) weeks beginning at 5:00 p.m. the first Friday after school adjourns and ending at 5:00 p.m. on the following sixth Friday.

The permanent custodian of the children ages three (3) through five (5) will have visitation on the middle weekend from 9:00 a.m. on Saturday until 6:00 p.m. Saturday and with children six (6) and over from 6:00 p.m. Friday until 6:00 p.m. Sunday on the third weekend. If the father is the non-custodial parent and the mother's weekend visitation falls on Father's Day, then the mother shall have visitation the weekend following Father's Day. THE NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT WILL PAY ONE-HALF OF THE NORMAL AMOUNT OF CHILD SUPPORT DURING PERIODS OF VISITATION OF TWO (2) WEEKS OR LONGER. It is the responsibility of the non-custodial parent or his/her attorney to notify the Clerk of the Court and employer (if wage withholding is in effect) of any abeyance of child support during any period of visitation of two (2) weeks or longer.

Additional Visitation: The Court encourages and approves the parties agreeing to as much additional visitation as they desire. It also encourages and approves the parties agreeing to flexibility with the visitation specified in the Order. However, in the absence of agreement, the terms of this Order are to be strictly observed.

In the event of siblings wherein one of the children is between the ages of one (1) and five (5) and the other child is age six (6) or older, then the visitation of the younger children shall be the same as the visitation of the older child.

Transportation: The non-custodial parent shall be responsible for transportation at the beginning of the visitation and the custodial parent shall be responsible for the return transportation at the end of the visitation. Pick-up and return times should be strictly observed. In the rare instance when the times cannot be observed, the other party must be given as much advance notice as possible. Transportation shall be provided by a responsible adult.

No Removal From State: Both parties are enjoined and restrained from removing the child or children from the State of Arkansas except for brief trips and vacations without the advance written permission of the Court. The Court will not grant permission for permanent removal without a hearing unless both parties have agreed in writing to the removal with notarized signatures.

Current Address and Telephone Number: Each party shall keep the other advised at all times of his or her current address and telephone number. The child or children should be permitted to call the other parent at all reasonable times.

School, Health Records and Extra-Curricular Activities: These records shall be made available to the non-custodial parent immediately upon request. The school and health care providers shall make the records available to both parents upon request.

Welfare of Children: The children are to be kept in a proper and wholesome environment at all times. Both parties are enjoined and restrained from making derogatory remarks about the other parent in the presence of the child or children, and from allowing or encouraging others to do so.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 1st day of July, 2019.

STANDARD ORDER REGARDING CHILDREN'S MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXPENSES

This Order will become effective in specific cases only when attached to and incorporated by reference in a separate order or decree.

1. Unless otherwise ordered* each parent shall be responsible for one-half of the child's or children's medical, dental, orthodontic, counseling, prescription drug and eyeglass expenses not covered by either party's insurance, including annual and percentage insurance deductibles.
2. Both parents shall obtain whatever medical and dental insurance is available at his or her place of employment, at reasonable cost.
3. If either parent fails to obtain the insurance referred to above and the same is available at his or her place of employment at reasonable cost, the Court may find that parent responsible for all of the expenses which insurance would have covered, in addition to finding him or her in contempt. Likewise, any parent who fails to cooperate with the other parent in furnishing insurance forms, I.D. cards, medical provider's billing statements, etc. necessary to obtain insurance benefits may be found liable for any expense which would have been covered but was not due to the omission, as well as being found in contempt.
4. The non-custodial parent's insurance shall be considered primary and the custodial parent's insurance shall be considered secondary.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 1st day of July, 2019.

*This Court will consider "otherwise ordering" when it is convinced some or all of the terms of this order would be inequitable in a specific case due to such factors, for example, as where one of the parents can easily afford to be responsible for all of the above-described expenses, whereas part of all of such expenses would be extremely burdensome on the other parent. The Court will also consider an exception where the custodial parent can obtain insurance at a substantially less cost than the non-custodial parent can obtain insurance. No exception, however, will be in effect unless ordered by the Court.
